World Water Day

The Facts

Almost 1 billion people in the world haven't got clean water to drink.

2.5 million People don't have access to a toilet.

Every day, 24,000 children under the age of 5 die because of unsafe water. Many children can't go to school because they need to walk for hours to get water for their families.

22nd March is World Water Day when there are events around the world focusing on the water crisis. So, what are you going to do on World Water Day?

Are you going to stand in a toilet queue?

Jamie Cranks and his friends are from Manchester. 22nd March isn't going to be a normal school day for them because they're going to stand in an unusual queue. Their teacher is going to join them too! In fact, people in about 80 countries are going to work together to form the world's longest toilet queue.

Or are you going to donate your Facebook or Twitter status?

Amy, her friends and thousands of other people are going to donate their Facebook and Twitter status to Water.org from 21st to 26th March. When Hollywood actor Matt Damon and engineer Gray White created the organization, they had a clear objective: everyone should have access to clean water to drink. Water.org works with engineers, mechanics and local partners to help communities to meet their own water and sanitation needs. On World Water Day, Water.org is inviting people to donate their Facebook Twitter statuses to tell millions about the water crisis.
